

Born and raised in Cincinnati, Ohio. Living in Kentucky since 1980. married to Bob Hall since 1962, bob is a deacon for the Archdiocese of Louisville, Ky. I am a catechist with a degree in Pastoral Ministry and a current member of the national Association of Lay Ministry (NALM).

My ministry currently is focused on persons who are incarcerated in prison or jail along with their reentry into the community. Currently serving as coordinator for the Prison, Jail & Reentry Ministry office at Catholic Charities in Louisville, KY.

The women's representative to National Diaconate Institute of Continuing Education board and experience as a wife of a deacon who from 2001 to 2011 was director of the Diaconate for the Archdiocese of Louisville. Bob & I worked together with the formation process especially implementing the bishops' directory on the diaconate & attending the National Association of Diaconate meetings I remain actively involved in the diaconate community.

Also I am a retired RN who had Hospice experience. Other experiences challenging me to be sensitive to women's issues-marriage, parenthood (5 children, 13 grandchildren & 4+ great-grandchildren).
