

Dr. Connie Martínez, is a native of Mexico, Chihuahua but grew up in Jalisco. She holds a doctoral degree from the University of Louisville in Education. She is a certified domestic violence counselor and has a strong track record of collaboration with other coalitions, agencies, networks, and organizations targeting immigrant/refugee populations. She works at The Center for Women and Families as Project Manager, seeking better ways to provide services to our Latino communities in collaboration with La Casita Center, a non-profit grassroots organization that supports Latino families in Louisville, KY and The University of Louisville. She also supports the Archdioceses of Louisville training our Latino community in the prevention of Child Sexual Abuse.