

Sarah Fellows is part of the Campus Ministry team at the University of Louisville. She has served as a campus minister for 15 years and was in youth ministry before that. She has a BA from Bellarmine, an M.A. from University of Louisville and an M.ed. from Loyola University New Orleans. She has served on various Archdiocesan committees including Planting Seeds, Opportunities for Life and Renew. She and her husband and daughter live in E'town and attend St. James.